Joshua Kolkow:

Mr. Kolkow relayed to those in attendance that he has lived in a casino town in Arizona and they are no positive outcomes of living in a casino town. He stated that it is the complete opposite and would take business away from the small business owners in the area.

Joanna Martin:

Ms. Martin stated to those in attendance that independent surveys have been completed in areas that have casinos in them and the surveys indicate that the positives would be a initial influx of cash flow, however the negatives are increased police and fire personnel would be needed to respond to emergency calls.

Connie Radziewicz:

Ms. Radziewicz relayed to those in attendance that September is Ovarian Cancer Awareness month followed by National Breast Cancer Awareness month in October and she is asking for permission from council to "Turn the Town Teal" in an effort to promote ovarian cancer. Ms. Sowers indicated that if a mini casino is built it will increase traffic on an already highly traveled roadway, crime rate will increase along with many other things. Ms. Sowers ended her comments by stating, "dogs are smart enough to not poop in their own yard".

George Dvorak:

Mr. Dvorak stated that he lives in East Prospect Borough and travels through Wrightsville often and a mini casino would increase traffic and crime issues within the borough. Mr. Dvorak stated that based on surveys a mini casino would not increase tourism in the area but would only satisfy the locals that have gambling addictions as they would be the clientele that would patronize the casino.

Diana Dvorak:

Ms. Dvorak relayed to council members that the office assistant was very rude on the phone and multiple times was told that the casino meeting was cancelled. Ms. Dvorak also stated to council members that they should be ashamed of themselves and the way they are presenting themselves to the public is not professional and they appear to be bored to be at a public meeting. Secretary Hoff stated to Ms. Dvorak that at no one time was a discussion of the mini casino on the agenda and no meeting was cancelled. All meetings are posted on the main page of Wrightsville Borough website.
