

Tree Of Remembrance

Join the Officers and Board of Historic Wrightsville, Inc. in remembering your loved ones (both living and deceased) this Christmas.

Again this year Historic Wrightsville, Inc. will be participating in Wrightsville's Annual Christmas Celebration, November 27, on Constitution Square (Fourth and Hellam Streets). Each year Wrightsville Borough, the Rotary Club, and Historic Wrightsville, Inc. join in welcoming the holiday season. Because the Tree of Remembrance (Historic Wrightsville, Inc.'s portion of the program) has generated such enthusiasm, many people have indicated a desire to be a part of this celebration. We are inviting everyone (not only our members) to join us in this special way of remembering both living and deceased family and friends.

Attached is a form that explains The Tree of Remembrance. If you wish to participate, forms are available at Historical Wrightsville Museum (309 Locust St./Sunday 1-4 p.m. ) or at webpage:www.historicwrightsvillepa.org

Dear Friends,

Christmas is that special time of the year, when we tell others how much we love them and how important they are in our lives.

Historic Wrightsville, Inc. invites you to celebrate Christmas in a unique way~by placing the names of your loved ones (both living and deceased) on the Museum's Tree of Remembrance. This will be a visible sign for all to see the significance that these honorees hold for you. Both your name and the names of your loved ones will be displayed on the tree: those whom you wish to honor, to appreciate, and to remember. Also a brochure will be included with the January mailing of the museum newsletter. It will list the names of all the contributors and their honorees.

The Tree of Remembrance will be located on Constitution Square (Fourth and Hellam Streets) and will be a part of Wrightsville's Annual Christmas Celebration November 27. Later it will be moved to the Museum, where it will be on display through the month of December.

All proceeds will go toward the maintenance and care of the Historic Wrightsville Museum (309 Locust Street) and the Diorama (Lower Hellam Street).

Please fill out and return this form by Saturday, November 5, with your donation (payable to Historic Wrightsville, Inc.). Kindly mail it to:

Historic Wrightsville, Inc. P.O. Box 125 Wrightsville, PA 17368 or place it in the Museum mail slot (309 Locust Street).

Please join us in wishing your loved ones "the peace, joy, and happiness" of the season.
